

Last Day International Aviators

AT STATE FAIR GROUNDS

John B. Moisant Will Fly Today, Sat. Nov. 26

Moisant once flew across the English Channel, and later won the Statute of Liberty $10,000 prize

Europe's Speed Demon
Simon

The French Aviator
Barrier

World's Greatest Flyers
Hamilton Garros who made the great cross country flight from New York to Philadelphia and back.
Only operator of the dangerous Demoiselle, the smallest aeroplane in the world.

American Flyer
Frisbie

American Flyer
Seymour

Commencing To-Day at 2 p. m. Prompt

Sensational Contests and Flights To-Day

Special Five-Mile Race To-Day:

CHAS. K. HAMILTON, in His 110-Horsepower Racing Biplane VS.

JOSEPH M. SEYMOUR, in His 120-Horsepower Fiat Vanderbilt Cup Racing Automobile

Seymour Also Operates a 50-Horsepower Biplane

PRICES: Children's admission, 25c; general admission, 50c; general admission, including grandstand, $1; general admission with automobile, including parking space, each person, $1; general admission, including box seat, $1.50. Tickets on sale daily at Straus Cigar Co., 917 East Main Street, at McCoy's, Eighth and Broad Streets, and at the Grounds.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau.
The Times-Dispatch.
In Hustings Court, Part 2, yesterday, Judge Ernest H. Wells presiding, William Lawrence and John Bonhart, both colored, were dismissed on the charge of felony—that of stealing $13 from Frank Burnett—but were remanded back to the Police Court on the charge of the misdemeanor of stealing $1.25.

"Jack" Robinson, a negro, charged with assaulting William Minnie, also colored, was given one year, and will be sent to the roads. The prisoner slashed his victim with a pocket knife.

While being quizzed by Sergeant Eddie Waymack last night in the Southern Depot as a suspicious character, Robert Brown, a portly negro, defended himself so valiantly that he was allowed to go in peace. Shortly before 8 o'clock Sergeant Waymack received a telephone call as to the negro being a suspicious character. Waymack discovered a razor upon him, but told him to give a plausible explanation. He said he was from West Point and had come down for a job. "For God's sake, cap'n, don't lock me up," he said. He gave a long list of references, including one from Governor Mann. A. M. Dabney was called in, and upon his assertions the talkative dork was liberated from fear of sudden death.

Only a Scratch.
A drop of blood coming from his slightly cut finger caused Gabriel J. Wortham, of Middleburg, to be taken to the Southern Railway Supply Company, 122 East Main Street, to be examined by a doctor. The man, who is a large, full-blooded man, tripped suddenly over a piece of glass. He arose and seated himself in a chair, and it was seen that his skin had only been slightly ripped. But when Wortham saw a drop or two of the red he heeled over, and it was some time before he came back to life.

Days Death Penalty.
Waverly Colles, colored, paid the penalty for his brutal murder of Ed. Fenner, also colored, yesterday morning about 11 o'clock in the penitentiary. Colles had nothing to say, and when being strapped in the death chair appeared resigned to his fate. The killing, which is one of the most brutal on record in South Richmond, occurred on August 19 in Tanyard Bottom. The victim, a mere youth, begged for his life, but only received a cowardly bullet in his back. Martha Williams, the negro woman who invited Colles to his death, took occasion yesterday to parade in black.

To Hear Report.
The services to be held to-morrow by the Stockton Street congregation at Odd-Fellows Hall, Eighth and Fruit Streets, will be of great importance, owing to the fact that it will be the second anniversary of the pastor, Rev. J. T. Halsey. On this day the committee appointed to recommend to the church a site for church building will be decided upon. The church body is not discouraged by the loss of its church, and as the services to-morrow are of such vital concern every member is urged to be present. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 in the morning, preaching at 11 A. M. and 3 P. M.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
The meeting of the Christian Women's Christian Temperance Union last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Reese Thompson, at Chester, was most interesting. Among those present were Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Reese Thompson, Mrs. Frank Du Val, Mrs. Willie Du Val, Mrs. J. H. Boyd, Mrs. L. A. Boyd, Mrs. C. L. Boyd, Mrs. W. C. Hatcher, Mrs. F. M. Cole, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. C. W. Peebles, Mrs. R. H. Bruce, Mrs. R. R. Gregory, Miss Annie Hatcher, Miss Mattie Lyon, Miss Jennie Jeff.

The women of Cowardin Avenue Christian Church gave an oyster supper in the Masonic Temple last night from 7 to 11 o'clock, which was largely attended.

Services will be held in all churches in South Richmond and vicinity to-morrow, Sunday, November 27, at 10 o'clock. Churches include: Central Methodist, Woodland Heights Baptist, Cowardin Avenue Christian, Ashbury Methodist Episcopal, Wade Memorial, Decatur Street Methodist, Church of the Good Shepherd of Forest Hill, Clifton Street Baptist, Weatherford Memorial, West End Methodist and others. Will conduct both morning and evening worship. For a community of its size South Richmond is thought to be one of the largest church-going places in the country.

Enters Plea of Guilty.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., November 25.—Thomas B. Johns entered a plea of guilty today in the Federal court on the charge of using the United States mails in an attempt to defraud and intimidate his aunt, Mrs. Mattie H. Johns, of West Raleigh, out of $250. Judge Connor has not yet passed sentence.

Permit for New Bank.
A permit was issued yesterday in the office of the Building Inspector for the erection of the new building of the Main Street Bank, to stand on the northwest corner of Main and Fifteenth Streets. It will be a four-story brick and stone structure, erected for the banking house, with offices above, and is estimated to cost $30,000.

Interest at Fever Heat.
Annapolis, Md., November 25.—It was said here to-night that the superintendent at West Point is highly indignant about the report that the corps of cadets raised a pool of something like $3,000 to cover the midshipmen's debt amounting to the outcome of to-morrow's big football game. Locally nothing has developed, and it is not thought that the Military Academy officials will take any action in the premises.

Beautiful Apple Display.
The Rose Cliff Fruit Farm has placed on display in the windows of R. L. Christian & Co., under the management of C. E. Sydnor & Co., Southern distributors, a unique exhibit of apples. It is stated that James Craig, president of this company, was offered $38,000 for his apples, delivered at the loading station, and declined it. The celebrated Lowry's seedling has been pronounced the "king of red apples."

Hackenschmidt Is Winner.
Rochester, N. Y., November 25.—George Hackenschmidt, who captured a another match with Frank Gotch, won from Maurice De Riaz, the Franco-Swiss grappler, to-night in straight falls, the first sections lasting one and fifty-three seconds, and the second in fifteen minutes and fifty-four seconds.

Unmatchable Suits and Overcoats,
$12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00
BURK & CO.,
808 East Main Street.

FEATURE IS WON BY JOHN REARDON

Bad Spill Occurs in Fifth Race.
Two Jockeys Thrown,
but Not Injured.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 25.—John Reardon, heavily-played favorite at even money, captured the fourth race, a purse event of seven furlongs, a race, when Tubal, ridden by Clement, crossed his front legs while rounding the turn out of the back stretch and fell heavily. Mon Ami, with McCabe in the saddle, stumbled over the fallen horse and threw his jockey. Neither boy was seriously injured. Tubal broke a shoulder and had to be destroyed.

First race—purse, $200; two-year-olds, selling, five and a half furlongs—Lady Ormocott (5 to 2) first, Planutus (1 to 2) second, Americaner (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:08.
Second race—purse, $400; for four-year-olds, and up, selling, mile and a half—Summer Night (6 to 1) first, Norblitt (1 to 5) second, Miss Marjorie (even) third. Time, 1:48 5-8.
Third race—purse, $400; three-year-olds and up, selling—Joe Galtens (11 to 5) first, Hibernia (4 to 1) second, Albany (3 to 2) third. Time, 1:14 1-8.
Fourth race—purse, $500; three-year-olds, seven furlongs—John Reardon (2 to 1) first, Sandrian (8 to 5) second, Connon (1 to 4) third. Time, 1:28 3-5.
Fifth race—selling; purse, $400; six furlongs—Tolstol D'O (6 to 1) first, Amot (5 to 5) second, Detroit (even) third. Time, 1:13 3-5.
Sixth race—selling; purse, $400; one and one-sixth miles—Colonel Ashmeade (7 to 1) first, Shapdale (7 to 10) second, Mamie Algot (even) third. Time, 1:45 2-5.

Interest at Fever Heat.
Annapolis, Md., November 25.—It was said here to-night that the superintendent at West Point is highly indignant about the report that the corps of cadets raised a pool of something like $3,000 to cover the midshipmen's debt amounting to the outcome of to-morrow's big football game. Locally nothing has developed, and it is not thought that the Military Academy officials will take any action in the premises.

Beautiful Apple Display.
The Rose Cliff Fruit Farm has placed on display in the windows of R. L. Christian & Co., under the management of C. E. Sydnor & Co., Southern distributors, a unique exhibit of apples. It is stated that James Craig, president of this company, was offered $38,000 for his apples, delivered at the loading station, and declined it. The celebrated Lowry's seedling has been pronounced the "king of red apples."

Unmatchable Suits and Overcoats,
$12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00
BURK & CO.,
808 East Main Street.

Unmatchable Suits and Overcoats,
$12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00
BURK & CO.,
808 East Main Street.

and is only grown in Virginia at present. Many people have stopped to examine the exhibit.

Charters Issued.
The following charters were issued yesterday by the State Corporation Commission: Wythe Protective Association (Inc.), Hampton, Va. William Thompson, president; C. F. Bailey, vice-president; L. M. T. Beale, secretary and treasurer—all of Hampton. Objects: A benevolent association to aid in the betterment of school facilities. The Jefferson Inn Corporation, Charlottesville, Va. John M. White, president, Charlottesville; Edwin A. Alderman, first vice-president, University of Virginia; Lewis C. Williams, second vice-president, Richmond; W. Allen Perkins, secretary and treasurer, Charlottesville, Va. Capital: Maximum, $150,000; minimum, $25,000. Objects: Erect and operate a hotel in the city of Charlottesville.
Virginia Hot Springs Valley Orchard Company (Inc.), Covington, Va. William McD. McAllister, president; B. C. Moorman, Jr., secretary and treasurer—all of Covington, Va. Capital: Maximum, $40,000; minimum, $20,000. Objects: Planting and cultivating apple orchards.

TINY TIM AND BOB CRATCHIT

A Group of DICKENS'S
Best-loved
Children
Tiny Tim and Bob Cratchit, Little Nell and Her Grandfather, David Copperfield and Peggotty, Paul and Florence Dombey
Painted by JESSIE WILLCOX SMITH, and reproduced in colors, is a most charming feature of the CHRISTMAS
SCRIBNER
On all news-stands
at 10c. $2.00 a year
CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

MANDAMUS ASKED IN HIGHER COURT

Petition Filed Against Judge and Trustee in Amherst County.

OLD ESTATE IS INVOLVED

Supreme Court Will Sit To-Day—Proceedings of Yesterday.

Praying for a mandamus to compel the Circuit Court of Amherst county to order the payment of certain funds by its trustee, Brown & Brown, the law firm composed of J. Thompson Brown and Lewis Brown, yesterday presented the petition to the court. The petitioner is L. P. Pleasant, trustee for himself and for his children under the will of his father, George T. Pleasant, asking for a partition of the real estate left by the testator. A decree in this matter was rendered in 1887. The petitioner alleges that in 1893 John W. Pleasant, on a mere motion, stating that certain sums of money had been paid to him, secured an appointment of Judge C. J. Campbell as trustee for two tracts of land held by L. P. Pleasant, and an order directing that the rental of these lands should be used in paying the debt due to John W. Pleasant. This amount, it is stated, while erroneously supposed to be $1,373.33, was really $23.33, as a place of land had satisfied the remainder.

By virtue of proceedings begun in 1905, a decree was rendered a year later reversing the case, and thus, according to the argument of the petitioner, showing that the appointment of Judge Campbell as trustee was illegal. When the trustee was called upon to settle he showed that he had paid certain sums to John W. Pleasant for his children. After much other litigation the court refused to further rehear the matter, allowing Judge Campbell's claims.

The petition prays the Supreme Court to issue a writ of peremptory mandamus, requiring Judge Campbell to pay into court the sums he has distributed to John W. Pleasant, the same to be given to L. P. Pleasant, who alone, he claims, has any right to them.

Next cases to be called: Richardson vs. J. S. Hoskins Lumber Company; Lambert vs. Jenkins; Talley vs. Metropolitan Life Insurance Company; Southern Railway Company vs. Satterfield's Administrator; Reid's Administrator vs. Windsor et al.; and Lynchburg Cotton Mill Company vs. Rives, being Nos. 17 to 22 on the argument docket.

JACK JOHNSON ARRESTED.

Charged With Assault on Girl in Theater.

New York, November 25.—Jack Johnson, the negro champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, was arrested this afternoon on a warrant issued by Magistrate Fresch, charged with assault upon Emily Cooper, a white girl, who is a member of a theatrical company in which the prize-fighter is appearing.

The complainant did not appear, but sent word that she was ill in bed, and the hearing was adjourned until to-morrow morning. The charge was one of simple assault and disorderly conduct.

"This thing is a frame-up," said Johnson. "I'm going to fight it to a finish and show them that I'm no easy mark."

Prices Show Marked Decline.
New York, November 25.—After touching the high mark yesterday, prices showed a marked drop in today's sessions of the "Old Glory" horse sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

for the day aggregated $53,125, an average of $300. To-day's high price was $2,000, paid for Chimes of Normandy, consigned by the River Park Farm. A. B. Cox, of Folly, Pa., was the purchaser.

Goodman Outfights Smith.
New York, November 25.—Jack Goodman, of the West Side, outfought "Young Sammy" Smith, of Philadelphia, to-night in a ten-round bout at the National Sporting Club of America. Smith was clever and fast, but his blows lacked weight. When Goodman landed it hurt, and several times he had Smith hanging on in distress.

Not Seriously Injured.
Birmingham, Ala., November 26.—Tackle Burke, of Washington and Lee University, who was slightly hurt in the game yesterday with the University of Alabama, went to the theatre last night, and took breakfast at the Country Club to-day, and has an engagement for a dance to-night. His injuries were not serious, as was reported last night.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Deaths of W. H. Woodward.
Birmingham, Ala., November 25.—W. H. Woodward, one of Birmingham's millionaires, died suddenly today at his summer home in Weld, Me. He went North a few days ago to bring Mrs. Woodward South to spend the winter. He was a pioneer in the sale at Madison Square Garden. Sales from development of Birmingham district.

Rheumatism

Get rid of your Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, Bad Circulation, Cold Feet, Weak Heart, Nervous Headaches and all Nervous Ailments by wearing ELECTROPODES, the only scientific treatment known for these ailments. Our proposition is the fairest in the world. You simply deposit one dollar with any good drug store, take a pair of ELECTROPODES and wear them thirty days. If they are not satisfactory or fail to cure, return them and get back your dollar. You are to be the judge, and there will be no questions asked. If there is uric acid in your system, ELECTROPODES will cure; and if there is no uric acid, they will do no good. The only way to find this out is to try a pair. Bad odors of the feet and armpits is a uric acid ailment, and we keep a standing offer of One Hundred Dollars for any case ELECTROPODES fail to cure. If your druggist cannot supply you, send one dollar direct to the ELECTROPODE COMPANY, Dept. 5, Heck Building, Philadelphia, and try a pair. Recollect, your money will positively be refunded if they fail to cure. Mention for lady or gentleman.

By virtue of proceedings begun in 1905, a decree was rendered a year later reversing the case, and thus, according to the argument of the petitioner, showing that the appointment of Judge Campbell as trustee was illegal. When the trustee was called upon to settle he showed that he had paid certain sums to John W. Pleasant for his children. After much other litigation the court refused to further rehear the matter, allowing Judge Campbell's claims.

The petition prays the Supreme Court to issue a writ of peremptory mandamus, requiring Judge Campbell to pay into court the sums he has distributed to John W. Pleasant, the same to be given to L. P. Pleasant, who alone, he claims, has any right to them.

Session To-Day.
The court meets to-day to make up for the Thanksgiving holiday, which it took on Thursday. No decisions were handed down yesterday, and it is presumed that the same will be had before next Thursday.
Yesterday's proceedings were as follows:
County of Mecklenburg, by, etc. vs. Beales et al., fully argued by C. T. Reeken and E. R. Williams for the defendant in error, and by C. T. Baker, for the plaintiff in error, and submitted.
City of Richmond vs. Model Steam Laundry, argued by City Attorney H. R. Pollard for the plaintiff in error, and by R. E. Peyton, Jr., and A. H. Sands for the defendant in error, and submitted.
Aspegren & Company vs. Wallerstein Produce Company, partly argued by A.

Arrange in Advance for
THE RED CAR
ALWAYS READY
Aviation Meet, Educational Convention, Receptions, Weddings, etc.
Office, day only Mon, 780 or 781
Garage, Day and Night Mon. 783
TAXIMETER RATES "Ask Mr. Bowman"
Virginia Taxi-Service Co.
The Best by Every Test